ON DISPLAY IN SYMPHONY HALL

This season's BSO Archives exhibit marks the 125th anniversary of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. In addition to the many important photographs, letters, and scores from the BSO Archives that fill the exhibit cases throughout Symphony Hall to document the BSO's founding in 1881 and its 125-year history, the BSO has received on loan from the Library of Congress's Music Division the original manuscript scores for two pieces closely associated with the BSO—Béla Bartók's Concerto for Orchestra, commissioned by the Koussevitzky Music Foundation and given its world premiere by Serge Koussevitzky and the BSO on December 1, 1944; and Henri Dutilleux's Symphony No. 2, commissioned jointly by the BSO and the Koussevitzky Music Foundation and given its world premiere by the BSO under Charles Munch on December 11, 1959. Also among the important artifacts on display throughout the season are the original manuscript of Igor Stravinsky's Symphony of Psalms (a BSO 50th-anniversary commission) and the score of Beethoven's Missa Solemnis, just recently returned to the BSO, that was used for Symphony Hall's inaugural concert on October 15, 1900.

Shown here is a plaster relief of a Bacchic procession mounted originally in Symphony Hall in the early 1900s, then taken down in the early 1980s and left to languish in Symphony Hall's basement for more than twenty years. The restoration of the plaster relief by Carol Snow and Nina Vinogradskaya and its reinstallation by Mystic Scenic Studios were made possible through a gift from Deborah M. Hauser.

He went on to write music for many television programs in the 1960s, winning two Emmy awards for his work. John Williams has composed the music and served as music director for more than 100 films, including War of the Worlds, Star Wars Episode III: Revenge of the Sith, Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban, The Terminal, Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets, Catch Me If You Can, Minority Report, Star Wars Episode II: Attack of the Clones, Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone, *A.I. He served as Grand Marshal of the 2004 Tournament of Roses parade and was a 2004 recipient of the Kennedy Center Honors.

In addition to his film music, Mr. Williams has written many concert pieces, including two symphonies, and concertos for bassoon, cello, flute, violin, clarinet, tuba, and trumpet. His Soundings was commissioned by the Los Angeles Philharmonic for the opening of Disney Hall in October 2003, and his Horn Concerto was premiered in November 2003 by the Chicago Symphony and its principal horn Dale Clevenger. He composed Call of the Champions for the 2002 Olympic Games in Salt Lake City, the NBC News theme "The Mission," "Liberty Fanfare," composed for the rededication of the Statue of Liberty, "We're Lookin' Good!," composed for the Special Olympics in celebration of the 1987 International Summer Games, the themes for the 1984, 1988, and 1996 Summer Olympic games, and for Seiji!, honoring Seiji Ozawa's 25th anniversary as BSO music director. Since his debut in 1979, he has led well over 200 concerts with the Boston Pops and Boston Pops Esplanade orchestras. He was named Boston Symphony Youth Concerts Conductor beginning with the 2004-2005 season. In May 2003 the Boston Conservatory named him Director of Orchestral Activities, in which position he serves as principal orchestral conductor as well as director of both the orchestra and conducting programs. Since fall 1997, Mr. Hangen has been Music Director of the Indian Hill Symphony. Associated with the Indian Hill Music Center of Littleton, Massachusetts, the Indian Hill Symphony is the only professional orchestra serving central Massachusetts and southern New Hampshire, and complements the Center's parallel purpose of providing the finest in music education through its community music school. For nine seasons Bruce Hangen served as the Artistic and General Director of the Portland Opera Repertory Theatre (P.O.R.T.) of Portland, Maine, the company he founded in July 1995.

For twelve years (1984-1996) Bruce Hangen was Music Director of the Omaha (Nebraska) Symphony. He expanded the orchestra's offerings, initiated full-orchestra touring, undertook major collaborations with other area institutions, introduced new educational programs, and established a sister-orchestra relationship between Omaha and Shizuoka, Japan. Omaha's nationally acclaimed "West Meets West" celebration of the Native American was conceived and conducted by Mr. Hangen. During the two seasons 1998-99 and 1999-2000, Bruce Hangen was Acting Resident Conductor of both the Utah and Kansas City symphony orchestras. He was for ten seasons (1976-86) Music Director and Conductor of the Portland (Maine) Symphony; for six years (1973-79) Associate Conductor of the Denver Symphony; for four years (1975-79) Music Director of the Arapahoe Chamber Orchestra in Denver; and for six summer seasons (1966-72) Assistant Conductor of the Colorado Philharmonic (now the National Repertory Orchestra). In the 1972-73 season alone, Mr. Hangen held three positions: Assistant Conductor of the Syracuse Symphony, Conducting Assistant of the Buffalo Philharmonic, and Faculty Conductor at the Eastman School of Music. A graduate of the Eastman School with a major in conducting, he was also a Conducting Fellow at the Tanglewood Music Center in 1972 and 1973. While at Eastman, he formed the Baroque Chamber Orchestra and co-founded Zeitgeist in Musik, a contemporary chamber ensemble. Bruce Hangen maintains an active guest conducting schedule. He has recently appeared with the orchestras of St. Louis, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Atlanta, Jacksonville, Houston, and the Florida Philharmonic. Mr. Hangen is the recipient of an Honorary Doctor of Fine Arts degree from the University of New England, and in Omaha he received the ICAN Foundation's 1990 Browning Award for Career Excellence and Vision.

TANGLEWOOD FESTIVAL CHORUS JOHN OLIVER, CONDUCTOR

The Tanglewood Festival Chorus celebrated its thirty-fifth anniversary in the summer of 2005. The chorus was organized in the spring of 1970, when founding conductor John Oliver became director of vocal and choral activities at the Tanglewood Music Center.

Made up of members who donate their services, and originally formed for performances at the BSO's summer home, the Tanglewood Festival Chorus is now the official chorus of the Boston Symphony Orchestra and Boston Pops, performing in Boston, New York, and at Tanglewood. The chorus has also performed with the Boston Symphony in Europe under Bernard Haitink and in the Far East under Seiji Ozawa. It can be heard on Boston Symphony recordings under Ozawa and Haitink, and on recordings with the Boston Pops Orchestra under Keith Lockhart and John Williams, as well as on the soundtracks to Clint Eastwood's Mystic River, Steven Spielberg's Saving Private Ryan, and John Sayles's Silver City.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF SYMPHONY HALL

The first home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra was the old Boston Music Hall, which stood downtown where the Orpheum Theatre now stands, held about 2,400 seats, and was threatened in 1893 by the city's road-building/rapid transit project. That summer, the BSO's founder, Major Henry Lee Higginson, organized a corporation to finance a new and permanent home for the orchestra. On October 15, 1900—some seven years and $750,000 later—the new hall was opened. The inaugural gala concluded with a performance of Beethoven's Missa Solemnis under the direction of then music director Wilhelm Gericke.

At Higginson's insistence, the architects—McKim, Mead & White of New York—engaged Wallace Clement Sabine, a young assistant professor of physics at Harvard, as their acoustical consultant, and Symphony Hall became the first auditorium designed in accordance with scientifically-derived acoustical principles. It is now ranked as one of the three best concert halls in the world, along with Amsterdam's Concertgebouw and Vienna's Musikverein. Bruno Walter called it "the most noble of American concert halls," and Herbert von Karajan, comparing it to the Musikverein, noted that "for much music, it is even better... because of the slightly lower reverberation time."

Symphony Hall is 61 feet high, 75 feet wide, and 125 feet long from the lower back wall to the front of the stage. The walls of the stage slope inward to help focus the sound. The side balconies are shallow so as not to trap any of the sound, and though the rear balconies are deeper, sound is properly reflected from the back walls. The recesses of the coffered ceiling help distribute the sound throughout the hall, as do the statue-filled niches along the three sides. The auditorium itself is centered within the building, with corridors and offices insulating it from noise outside. The leather seats are the ones installed for the hall's opening in 1900. With the exception of the wood floors, the hall is built of brick, steel, and plaster, with only a moderate amount of decoration, the original, more ornate plans for the building's exterior having been much simplified as a cost-reducing measure. But as architecture critic Robert Campbell has observed, upon penetrating the "outer carton" one discovers "the gift within—the lovely ornamented interior, with its delicate play of grays, its statues, its hint of giltwork, and, at concert time, its sculptural glitter of instruments on stage."

Symphony Hall was designed so that the rows of seats could be replaced by tables for Pops concerts. For BSO concerts, the hall seats 2,625. For Pops concerts, the capacity is 2,371, including 241 small tables on the main floor. To accommodate this flexible system—an innovation in 1900—an elevator, still in use, was built into the Symphony Hall floor. Once a year the five Symphony Hall chandeliers are lowered to the floor and all 394 lightbulbs are changed. The sixteen replicas of Greek and Roman statues—ten of mythical subjects, six of actual historical figures—are related to music, art, and literature. The statues were donated by a committee of 200 Symphony-goers and cast by P.P. Caproni and Brother, Boston, makers of plaster reproductions for public buildings and art schools. They were not ready for the opening concert, but appeared one by one during the first two seasons.

Architect's watercolor rendering of Symphony Hall prior to its construction

The Symphony Hall organ, an Aeolian-Skinner designed by G. Donald Harrison and installed in 1949, is considered one of the finest concert hall organs in the world. The console was autographed by Albert Schweitzer, who expressed his best wishes for the organ's tone. There are more than 4,800 pipes, ranging in size from 32 feet to less than six inches and located behind the organ pipe facade visible to the audience. The organ was commissioned to honor two milestones in 1950: the fiftieth anniversary of the hall's opening, and the 200th anniversary of the death of Johann Sebastian Bach. The 2004-2005 season brought the return to use of the Symphony Hall organ following a two-year renovation process by the firm of Foley-Baker, Inc., based in Tolland, CT.

From 1906

version of Carmen starring Geraldine Farrar (1915), the Boston Shoe Style Show (1919), a debate on American participation in the League of Nations (1919), a lecture/demonstration by Harry Houdini debunking spiritualism (1925), a spelling bee sponsored by the Boston Herald (1935), Communist Party meetings (1938-40; 1945), Jordan Marsh-sponsored fashion shows "dedicated to the working woman" (1940s), and all the inaugurations of former longtime Boston mayor James Michael Curley.

A couple of interesting points for observant concertgoers: The plaques on the proscenium arch were meant to be inscribed with the names of great composers, but the hall's original directors were able to agree unanimously only on Beethoven, so his remains the only name above the stage. The ornamental initials "BMH" in the staircase railings on the Huntington Avenue side (originally the main entrance) reflect the original idea to name the building Boston Music Hall, but the old Boston Music Hall, where the BSO had performed since its founding in 1881, was not demolished as planned, and a decision on a substitute name was not reached until Symphony Hall's opening.

In 1999, Symphony Hall was designated and registered by the United States Department of the Interior as a National Historic Landmark, a distinction marked in a special ceremony at the start of the 2000-01 season. In the 2000-01 season, the Boston Symphony Orchestra marked the centennial of its home, renewing Symphony Hall's role as a crucible for new music activity, as a civic resource, and as a public gathering place. The programming and celebratory events included world premieres of works commissioned by the BSO, the first steps of a new master plan that will strengthen Symphony Hall's public presence, and the launching of an initiative that will ultimately extend the sights and sounds of Symphony Hall via the internet. The Symphony Hall Centennial Season brought not only a commemoration, but a second inauguration. Symphony Hall was built for the purpose of expanding the presence of orchestral music here and now—a mission the BSO and Boston Pops continue to carry forward into today's world and the world of tomorrow.

Play a supporting role in the BSO's 125th season

T H I S   S E A S O N, Music Director James Levine and the Boston Symphony Orchestra celebrate the BSO's 125 years of tradition and innovation.

You can help Maestro Levine and every member of the Orchestra reach new heights of musical artistry during this landmark season by becoming a Friend of the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

The Orchestra depends on the generosity of its patrons to provide critical financial support to maintain the BSO's place as one of the world's leading symphonic organizations; ticket sales and other earned income cover less than 60 percent of the BSO's operating expenses. Your contribution will support Maestro Levine's artistic plans and the BSO's ongoing education and community outreach programs.

RUDOLPH THE RED-NOSED REINDEER

Words and music by Johnny Marks

Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer,
Had a very shiny nose.
And if you ever saw it,
You would even say it glows.
All of the other reindeer
Used to laugh and call him names.
They never let poor Rudolph
Join in any reindeer games.
Then one foggy Christmas Eve,
Santa came to say:
"Rudolph, with your nose so bright,
Won't you guide my sleigh tonight?"
Then how the reindeer loved him,
As they shouted out with glee:
"Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer,
You'll go down in history!"

HAVE YOURSELF A MERRY LITTLE CHRISTMAS

Words and music by Hugh Martin and Ralph Blane

Have yourself a merry little Christmas,
let your heart be light;
From now on, our troubles will be out of sight.
Have yourself a merry little Christmas,
make the Yuletide gay;
From now on, our troubles will be miles away.
Here we are as in olden days,
Happy golden days of yore.
Faithful friends who are dear to us
Gather near to us once more.
Through the years we all will be together,
if the Fates allow;
Hang a shining star upon the highest bough,
And have yourself a merry little Christmas now.

LET IT SNOW! LET IT SNOW! LET IT SNOW!

Words by Sammy Cahn Music by Jule Styne

Oh! the weather outside is frightful,
But the fire is so delightful,
And since we've no place to go,
Let it snow! Let it snow! Let it snow!
It doesn't show signs of stopping,
And I brought some corn for popping;
The lights are turned 'way down low.
Let it snow! Let it snow! Let it snow!
When we finally kiss goodnight,
How I'll hate going out in the storm!
But if you'll really hold me tight,
All the way home I'll be warm.
The fire is slowly dying,
And my dear, we're still good-bye-ing.
But as long as you love me so,
Let it snow! Let it snow! Let it snow!

THE CHRISTMAS SONG

Words and music by Mel Tormé and Robert Wells

Chestnuts roasting on an open fire,
Jack Frost nipping at your nose,
Yuletide carols being sung by a choir,
And folks dressed up like Eskimos.
Ev'rybody knows a turkey and some mistletoe
Help to make the season bright.
Tiny tots with their eyes all a-glow
Will find it hard to sleep tonight.
They know that Santa's on his way,
He's loaded lots of toys and goodies on his sleigh.
And ev'ry mother's child is gonna spy
To see if reindeer really know how to fly.
And so I'm offering this simple phrase
To kids from one to ninety-two,
Al-tho' it's been said many times, many ways:
Merry Christmas to you.

WINTER WONDERLAND

Words by Dick Smith Music by Felix Bernard

Sleigh-bells ring, are you list'nin'?
In the lane, snow is glist'nin'.
A beautiful sight, we're happy tonight,
Walkin' in a winter wonderland!
Gone away is the blue-bird,
Here to stay is a new bird.
He sings a love song, as we go along,
Walkin' in a winter wonderland!
In the meadow we can build a snowman,
Then pretend that he is Parson Brown:
He'll say, "Are you married?"
We'll say, "No, man!"
But you can do the job when you're in town"—
Later on, we'll conspire,
As we dream by the fire,
To face unafraid, the plans that we made,
Walkin' in a winter wonderland!

JINGLE BELLS

Words and music by J. S. Pierpont

Dashing thro' the snow, in a one-horse
open sleigh,
O'er the fields we go, laughing all the way;
Bells on bobtail ring, making spirits bright;
What fun it is to ride and sing
A sleigh-ing song to-night.—Oh!
Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all the way!
Oh what fun it is to ride
In a one-horse open sleigh-eigh!
Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all the way!
Oh what fun it is to ride
In a one-horse open sleigh.
Oh what fun it is to ride
In a one—horse o—pen sleigh!

O come, all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem.

A HOLLY JOLLY CHRISTMAS

Johnny Marks

Have a holly jolly Christmas,
It's the best time of the year.
I don't know if there'll be snow,
But have a cup of cheer!

Have a holly jolly Christmas,
And when you walk down the street,
Say hello to friends you know
And everyone you meet.

Oh ho, the mistletoe,
Hung where you can see.
Somebody waits for you,
Kiss her once for me!

Have a holly jolly Christmas,
And in case you didn't hear:
Oh, by golly have a holly jolly
Christmas this year!

DECK THE HALLS

Deck the halls with boughs of holly,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
'Tis the season to be jolly,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
Don we now our gay apparel,
Fa la la, la la la, la la la,
Troll the ancient yuletide carol,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.

See the blazing yule before us,
Fa la la la la, la la la la
Strike the harp and join the chorus,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
Follow me in merry measure,
Fa la la, la la la, la la la,
While I tell of yuletide treasure,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.

FROSTY THE SNOWMAN

Steve Nelson and Jack Rollins

Frosty the snowman
Was a jolly, happy soul,
With a corncob pipe and a button nose
And two eyes made out of coal.

Frosty the snowman
Is a fairy tale, they say
He was made of snow, but the
children know
How he came to life one day.

There must have been some magic
In that old silk hat they found,
For when they placed it on his head
He began to dance around!

Oh, Frosty the snowman
Was alive as he could be,
And the children say he could laugh
and play
Just the same as you and me.

Thumpety thump thump,
Thumpety thump thump,
Look at Frosty go!

Thumpety thump thump,
Thumpety thump thump,
Over the hills of snow!

EDWARD CUMMING

In 2005-2006 Edward Cumming celebrates his fourth season as the ninth music director of the Hartford Symphony Orchestra. His appointment was announced June 5, 2001, culminating a two-year search process involving nearly 300 applicants from around the world. Mr. Cumming was appointed Resident Conductor of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra in 1997. In that role, he worked closely with Music

Director Mariss Jansons, accompanying the orchestra on tour and collaborating on its syndicated radio broadcasts. He conducted the PSO in its highly regarded concerts for young people at Heinz Hall and in outreach concerts throughout western Pennsylvania, and also performed on the Orchestra's Pops series. As Resident Conductor of the Florida Orchestra from 1989 to 1993, he garnered audience and critical acclaim for his "Champagne" and "Coffee" concerts, two series of light classics for young adults and senior citizens. In 1991 he conducted the Florida Orchestra in Stephen Montague's From the White Edge of Phrygia and performed with such notable guest artists as Sylvia McNair, Christopher Parkening, Gary Graffman, Robert McDuffie, and the late Malcolm Frager. Also that year, Mr. Cumming conducted a recording of the "Star-Spangled Banner" with Whitney Houston

JOSE FELICIANO

Recognized as the first Latin artist to cross over into the English music market, Jose Feliciano has also been acclaimed by critics worldwide as "the greatest living guitarist." He has recorded nearly 70 albums, earning more than 45 gold and platinum records, 16 Grammy nominations, and six Grammy awards. In 1996 he received Billboard's Lifetime Achievement Award and New York City re-named Public School 155 "The

Jose Feliciano Performing Arts School." He has performed with symphony orchestras and has appeared on major television shows and his own specials worldwide. His music has been featured on television, in films, and on the stage. Jose was born blind on September 10, 1945, in Lares, Puerto Rico, as one of 11 boys. His love affair with music began early. When he was five, his family immigrated to New York City and young Jose learned to play the concertina. He then taught himself guitar and was later inspired to sing. To help his family financially, Jose left school at 17 and began performing in coffee houses, where his salary would come from "passing the hat." That same year he played his first professional engagement in Detroit. His first major break came in the Spanish market in 1966, when, after a performance at Argentina's Mar del Plata Festival, the RCA executives in Buenos Aires encouraged him to record an album of Spanish music, which became a smash hit. Two more albums followed and the name Jose Feliciano was known throughout South and Central America. Then RCA in Los Angeles teamed him with producer Rick Jarrard to record the Doors' song "Light My Fire." Grammy nominations and awards followed, for his album Feliciano! Wanting to expand his career, Jose acted in episodes of several television series in the 1970s. More recently he made a cameo appearance in the 1995 movie Fargo, performing the original song "Let's Find Each Other Tonight." In addition to "Light My Fire," the songs "Che Sera" (a hit in Europe, Asia, and South America) and "Feliz Navidad" (named one of the 25 greatest holiday songs of the century by ASCAP) have been milestones. Jose Feliciano has received stars on the Hollywood Walk of Fame and on the Walk of Fame in his native Puerto Rico. It should be noted that he was the first artist to stylize the National Anthem in public performance (during the 1968 World Series), now a common practice. In 1989 he was invited by legendary author Ray Bradbury to write the music for the play The Wonderful Ice Cream Suit. Over the years, Jose Feliciano has been a part of many historic events, including the "Back to the Ranch Benefit," in which he co-headlined with Paul Simon and James Taylor; the Motown 25 special; PBS's The Kennedy Center Presents: The Americanos Concert; the "Lady Liberty" Concert in New York; the Christmas tree lighting ceremony in Washington, D.C.; and "Christmas at the Vatican," among many others. In fall 1997 Polygram released the album Señor Bolero, which attained gold, platinum, or double platinum status in the United States, Puerto Rico, Mexico, Costa Rica, Argentina, and Venezuela. Entering the new millennium, Jose received the "Artist of the Millennium Award" from Los Premios Globos. In 2004 Universal Latino released his new CD, A Mexico... con Amor, and in Europe, RCA/BMG released a collection of Feliciano classics. In September 2005 Jose Feliciano gave a special performance in Houston for the displaced victims of Hurricane Katrina. This week he makes his Boston Pops debut.

NEW YORK VOICES

New York Voices is the Grammy Award-winning vocal ensemble renowned for its excellence in jazz and the art of group singing. Like the great groups that have come before—such as Lambert, Hendricks and Ross, Singers Unlimited, Manhattan Transfer, and Take 6—they have learned from the best and taken the art form to new levels. Their interests are rooted in jazz, but often Brazilian, R&B, classical, and pop influences are included with equal creativity and authenticity. New York Voices was formed in 1987 by Darmon Meader, Peter Eldridge, Kim Nazarian, Caprice Fox—all Ithaca

College alumni who were part of a group invited to tour European jazz festivals in the summer of 1986—and Sara Krieger. In 1989 they signed with GRP Records and released their debut album, New York Voices. The group quickly earned domestic and international recognition in the jazz world. From 1989 to 1994 they released three more compact discs on the GRP label: Hearts of Fire, What's Inside, and Collection. During this period the group underwent personnel changes. In 1992 Sara Krieger retired her chair and, after auditioning over 60 vocalists from across the country, they found Lauren Kinhan, whose first musical contributions can be heard on NYV's third release, What's Inside (May 1993). When Caprice Fox left the group in early 1994, New York Voices became the quartet it is today. In addition to recording their own CDs, NYV has made many guest appearances on recordings and in live performances in a variety of musical settings. They can be heard on the Grammy-winning collaboration Count Basie Orchestra with New York Voices, Live at Manchester Craftsmen's Guild (MCG Records), the contemporary classical The Ancient Tower (Robert Lepley—EarthBeat Records), Sketches of James (Koch Jazz), A Love Affair—The Music of Ivan Lins (Telarc), Heirs to Jobim (BMG Records), Don Sebesky's I Remember Bill (BMG), Jim Hall's By Arrangement (Telarc), Irving Berlin's Louisiana Purchase (DRG), and many more. They have performed with a number of influential jazz artists, among them Ray Brown, Bobby McFerrin, Nancy Wilson, and George Benson. In early 1997 NYV signed with RCA Victor and recorded New York Voices Sing the Songs of Paul Simon, paying tribute to a contemporary composer with new turns on his popular songbook. In late 2000 New York Voices signed a new contract with Concord Records and completed a sixth CD, Sing, Sing, Sing, their version of the great Big Band songbook. Along with their extensive concert and recording dates, the group presents workshops and clinics to high school and college music students. Individually, the four members are involved in a variety of projects, including solo performances and recordings, teaching, writing, and arranging. They have previously appeared with the Boston Pops at Symphony Hall and on tour.

JAMES ORENT

In 2003 Mr. Orent substituted for Keith Lockhart before an audience of 13,000 at the Ravinia Festival. He has

Great Benefactors

In the building of his new symphony for Boston, the BSO's founder and first benefactor, Henry Lee Higginson, knew that ticket revenues could never fully cover the costs of running a great orchestra. From 1881 to 1918 Higginson covered the orchestra's annual deficits with personal donations that exceeded $1 million. The Boston Symphony Orchestra now honors each of the following generous donors whose cumulative giving to the BSO is $1 million or more with permanent recognition as Great Benefactors of this great orchestra. # THE WALTER PISTON SOCIETY

a legacy of giving

ANNA FINNERTY, who loved having tea with the development staff, left this cup and saucer as a reminder of how much she enjoyed volunteering at Symphony Hall.

One day, after giving her time stuffing envelopes, Miss Finnerty asked how she could leave a gift to the BSO in her will, thereby becoming a Walter Piston Society Member. She was told to add the wording, "I hereby bequeath the sum of $_____ to the Boston Symphony Orchestra, Symphony Hall, Boston, MA 02115, tax ID #04-2103550."

She certainly followed up on those instructions. After her death, Miss Finnerty's estate gave the BSO more than $1 million to endow the Assistant Conductor chair in perpetuity.

If you would like to talk with one of our professional development officers about leaving your legacy at the Symphony, please call (617) 638-9269 or e-mail nbaker@bso.org. You may be assured of complete confidentiality.

ARTISTS

In 2002 Bruce Hangen became Principal Pops Guest Conductor, the first in Boston Pops history. Since his debut in 1979, he has led well over 200 Boston Pops concerts. Mr. Hangen was named Boston Symphony Youth Concerts Conductor beginning with the 2004-2005 season. In May 2003 the Boston Conservatory named him Director of Orchestral Activities, in which position he serves as principal orchestral conductor as well as director of both the orchestra and conducting programs. Since fall 1997 he has been Music Director of the Indian Hill Symphony (Littleton, Massachusetts). For nine seasons he served as the Artistic and General Director of the Portland Opera Repertory Theatre (P.O.R.T.) of Portland, Maine, the company he founded in July 1995. For twelve years (1984-1996) he was Music Director of the Omaha (Nebraska) Symphony. During the two seasons 1998-99 and 1999-2000, he was Acting Resident Conductor of both the Utah and Kansas City symphony orchestras. He was for ten seasons (1976-86) Music Director and Conductor of the Portland (Maine) Symphony; for six years (1973-79) Associate Conductor of the Denver Symphony; for four years (1975-79) Music Director of the Arapahoe Chamber Orchestra in Denver; and for six summer seasons (1966-72) Assistant Conductor of the Colorado Philharmonic (now the National Repertory Orchestra). In the 1972-73 season alone, Mr. Hangen held three positions: Assistant Conductor of the Syracuse Symphony, Conducting Assistant of the Buffalo Philharmonic, and Faculty Conductor at the Eastman School of Music. A graduate of the Eastman School with a major in conducting, he was also a Conducting Fellow at the Tanglewood Music Center in 1972 and 1973. Active as a guest conductor, Bruce Hangen has recently appeared with the orchestras of St. Louis, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Atlanta, Jacksonville, Houston, and the Florida Philharmonic.

Buddy Wachter is master of the four-string banjo, that uniquely American instrument. Born on February 3, 1953, in Baltimore, Andrew John "Buddy" Wachter studied mandolin, guitar, and banjo. In 1969 he shared the stage with banjo legend Eddie Peabody at the Hollywood Palladium, earning national attention. The following year Buddy began his professional career with Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians. Over the next two years he toured to hundreds of cities throughout North America. Since then Buddy's life has been a campaign to bring the four-string banjo to the world's concert stages, and he has done so with unprecedented virtuosity. He has given more than 4,000 performances to audiences in over 50 countries, exploring a wide variety of musical styles from jazz to pop, as well as his own adaptations of classical works. Buddy has also made numerous radio and television appearances. In 1982, the German SR television network sponsored his first European tour which culminated in the taping of an acclaimed television special, Buddy Live. Its popularity has taken Buddy back to Europe for regular concert tours and jazz festivals. Since 1990 Buddy has been a musical ambassador under the auspices of the U.S. Department of State. These performances have helped unite the world banjo community and introduce the instrument to remote parts of the world. He also performs regularly with symphony orchestras. Buddy Wachter has made five solo recordings and appears on many others. He has published articles and instructional materials for the banjo, and leads banjo clinics internationally. He has created a library of more than 30 works for banjo and orchestra through new transcriptions, arrangements, and original compositions.

On behalf of the Boston Symphony Orchestra and the A Company Christmas at Pops Committee, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the 22nd Annual A Company Christmas at Pops. We have a wonderful program in store for you, and we're delighted that you've made this evening part of your holiday season celebrations.

For 22 years, Boston's business community has played a critical role in supporting the Boston Symphony Orchestra and its outstanding education and community outreach programs by participating in A Company Christmas at Pops. Your continued, generous support of this annual event allows us to share the spirit of the season with 200 children who attend each year as our guests, and the gift of music with more than 60,000 Massachusetts K-12 students throughout the year. This evening we are pleased to welcome children from BELL - Building Educated Leaders for Life and the Maurice Tobin Elementary School; the Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts BlueScholars Program at Madison Park Regional High School; the Boston Boys and Girls Clubs, Jordan Boys and Girls Club in Chelsea; Catholic Charities; Community Teamwork, Inc./Citizen Schools, Lowell, Massachusetts; Express Yourself; the Home for Little Wanderers; the Oliver Hazard Perry School; and the Robert F. Kennedy Children's Action Corps.

Tonight, Keith Lockhart and the Boston Pops have planned a special Christmas program of holiday favorites, featuring Jose Feliciano, New York Voices, and the Tanglewood Festival Chorus. And of course, it wouldn't be A Company Christmas at Pops without some surprise celebrity guests on the Symphony Hall stage!

Thank you for helping the BSO and the Boston Pops continue this unique holiday tradition. We look forward to seeing you again next year, and wish you and yours a very happy and healthy New Year!

Children's Program 2005

The Children's Program is a wonderful way for corporations and individuals to share the spirit of the season with children from some of the hardest-working children's service organizations in Boston. Each year, 200 children and their chaperones are guests of the corporate community at this event. Earlier tonight, the children dined at the Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, enjoyed a variety of entertainment, received gifts from Santa, and now join us for the festivities at Symphony Hall. Revenue raised through the Children's Program helps the BSO to continue its outstanding Youth and Education Outreach Programs throughout the school year, including the Metropolitan Youth Concerts Series. These programs touch the lives of more than 60,000 schoolchildren each year.

We are delighted to welcome our guests this evening from the following organizations:

BELL - Building Educated Leaders for Life, and the Maurice Tobin Elementary School

Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts

BlueScholars Program at Madison Park Regional High School

The Boston Boys and Girls Clubs, Jordan Boys and Girls Club in Chelsea

Timeline History of the Boston Pops

1885

Emulating continental garden concerts, the BSO establishes the first Promenade Concert at the old Boston Music Hall. It's the start of a great American musical tradition.

1899

The Promenade Concerts become more "American" with more American music and the adoption of John Philip Sousa's "The Stars and Stripes Forever!" as its regular grand finale.

1900

With the infusion of more "popular" American music in its programs, the Promenade Concerts are now officially known as the "Pops."

1930

After several decades of European conductors, the BSO appoints American-born Arthur Fiedler, a violinist in the orchestra, to take up the baton.

For the next 50 years, Maestro Fiedler reshapes the Pops for the twentieth century, bringing music to the east bank of the Charles River with free Esplanade Concerts, and rousing audiences with symphonic jazz and Broadway hits.

1935

Maestro Fiedler leads the Pops, under the name "The Boston Pops Orchestra," in its first recordings. "Jalousie" becomes the first orchestral record to sell more than a million copies.

1952

Arthur Fiedler continues to propel the Boston Pops into the national and international limelight with local radio broadcasts and ...

1970

...with "Evening at Pops" on national public television.

The 2005 Boston Pops season marked Keith Lockhart's Tenth Anniversary Season as Boston Pops Conductor. During his decade with the orchestra, Mr. Lockhart has honored the Boston Pops' proud history while breaking new ground at this venerable American institution. In February 1995 Keith Lockhart was named 20th conductor of the Boston Pops Orchestra since its founding in 1885. During his tenure, he has conducted more than 800 concerts and made 62 television shows, including 38 new programs for PBS's Evening at Pops; the annual July Fourth spectacular, produced by CBS4 in Boston and shown nationally on CBS Television; and the orchestra's annual holiday special, produced and aired in Boston on CBS4. The Boston Pops' 2002 July Fourth broadcast was nominated for an Emmy Award for Outstanding Classical Music/Dance Program, and the 2002 Evening at Pops telecast of "Fiddlers Three" won the 2002 ASCAP Deems Taylor Award in the Television Broadcast category. Keith Lockhart has led the Boston Pops on 25 national tours, four overseas tours of Japan and Korea, and in performances at Carnegie Hall. Under his direction the orchestra has broadened its touring activities, performing in concert halls and sports arenas across the country. In September 2004 Mr. Lockhart and the orchestra appeared live on national television with Sir Elton John during the NFL Season Kickoff special. In February 2002 Mr. Lockhart led the Boston Pops in the pregame show of Super Bowl XXXVI at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans. In February 2004 he led the first Boston Pops concert at New York's Radio City Music Hall since the Fiedler era. This season Keith Lockhart and the Boston Pops release America, the orchestra's second self-produced and -distributed recording, on Boston Pops Recordings. This collection of beloved patriotic music follows up on the incredible success of Sleigh Ride, released in November 2004, which sold out its initial run of 25,000 copies. Both recordings are available through www.bostonpops.org. Keith Lockhart and the Boston Pops Orchestra recorded eight albums with RCA Victor—Runnin' Wild: The Boston Pops Play Glenn Miller (1996), American Visions (1997), the Grammy-nominated The Celtic Album (February 1998), Holiday Pops (September 1998), A Splash of Pops (1999), Encore! (March 2000), the Latin Grammy-nominated The Latin Album (September 2000), and My Favorite Things—A Richard Rodgers Celebration (April 2002).

Born in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., in November 1959, Keith Lockhart began his musical studies with piano lessons at the age of seven. He holds degrees from Furman University in Greenville, S.C., and Carnegie-Mellon University in Pittsburgh. Mr. Lockhart came to the Boston Pops from Cincinnati, where he served as associate conductor of both the Cincinnati Symphony and Cincinnati Pops orchestras. Music director of the Utah Symphony since 1998, Mr. Lockhart led that orchestra at the 2002 Winter Olympic Games in Salt Lake City. As a guest artist, Mr. Lockhart has conducted the major symphony orchestras of Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Los Angeles, Minnesota, Montreal, New York, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Singapore, Toronto, and Vancouver. He opened the 2002-03 Saint Louis Symphony season with a gala concert featuring cellist Yo-Yo Ma, and returned to Saint Louis in September 2004; he led the Deutsches Symphonie-Orchester in Berlin on New Year's Eve 2002 and the Concertgebouw Orchestra of Amsterdam in June 2003. Recent engagements include successful appearances with the Baltimore, Edmonton, Toronto, Columbus, and Cincinnati symphonies, and his Boston Lyric Opera debut with Puccini's Tosca in spring 2004. Notable past engagements include his first major opera production, Douglas Moore's The Ballad of Baby Doe, with the Washington (D.C.) Opera and debuts with the New York Chamber Symphony, the Houston Symphony, and the New Japan Philharmonic.

JINGLE BELLS

Jingle bells, jingle bells,
Jingle all the way!
Oh what fun it is to ride
In a one-horse open sleigh-eigh!
Jingle bells, jingle bells,
Jingle all the way!
Oh what fun it is to ride
In a one-horse open sleigh!
Dashing through the snow
In a one horse open sleigh,
O'er the fields we go
Laughing all the way (ha, ha, ha)!
Bells on bobtail ring,
Making spirits bright.
What fun it is to ride and sing
A sleighing song tonight!

Jingle bells, jingle bells,
Jingle all the way!
Oh what fun it is to ride
In a one-horse open sleigh-eigh!
Jingle bells, jingle bells,
Jingle all the way!
Oh what fun it is to ride
In a one-horse open sleigh!

RUDOLPH THE RED-NOSED REINDEER

Johnny Marks

Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer
Had a very shiny nose,
And if you ever saw it
You would even say it glows.
All of the other reindeer
Used to laugh and call him names.
They never let poor Rudolph
Join in any reindeer games.
Then one foggy Christmas Eve
Santa came to say,
"Rudolph with your nose so bright,
Won't you guide my sleigh tonight?"
Then how the reindeer loved him
As they shouted out with glee,
"Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer
You'll go down in history!"

THE CHIPMUNK SONG

Ross Bagdasarian, Sr.

Christmas, Christmas time is near,
Time for joy and time for cheer.
We've been good but we can't last,
Hurry Christmas, hurry fast!
Want a plane that loops the loop,
Me, I want a hula hoop!

We can hardly stand the wait,
Please Christmas, don't be late!
We can hardly stand the wait,
Please Christmas, don't be late!

A HOLLY JOLLY CHRISTMAS

Johnny Marks

Have a holly jolly Christmas,
It's the best time of the year.
I don't know if there'll be snow,
But have a cup of cheer!

Have a holly jolly Christmas,
And when you walk down the street,
Say hello to friends you know
And everyone you meet.

Oh ho, the mistletoe,
Hung where you can see.
Somebody waits for you,
Kiss her once for me!

Have a holly jolly Christmas,
And in case you didn't hear:
Oh, by golly have a holly jolly
Christmas this year!

DECK THE HALLS

Deck the halls with boughs of holly,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
'Tis the season to be jolly,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
Don we now our gay apparel,
Fa la la, la la la, la la la,
Troll the ancient yuletide carol,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.

See the blazing yule before us,
Fa la la la la, la la la la
Strike the harp and join the chorus,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
Follow me in merry measure,
Fa la la, la la la, la la la,
While I tell of yuletide treasure,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.

FROSTY THE SNOWMAN

Steve Nelson and Jack Rollins

Frosty the snowman
Was a jolly, happy soul,
With a corncob pipe and a button nose
And two eyes made out of coal.

Frosty the snowman
Is a fairy tale, they say
He was made of snow, but the
children know
How he came to life one day.

There must have been some magic
In that old silk hat they found,
For when they placed it on his head
He began to dance around!

Oh, Frosty the snowman
Was alive as he could be,
And the children say he could laugh
and play
Just the same as you and me.

Thumpety thump thump,
Thumpety thump thump,
Look at Frosty go!

Thumpety thump thump,
Thumpety thump thump,
Over the hills of snow!

Tanglewood Festival Chorus

John Oliver, Conductor

The Tanglewood Festival Chorus celebrated its thirty-fifth anniversary in the summer of 2005. The chorus was organized in the spring of 1970, when founding conductor John Oliver became director of vocal and choral activities at the Tanglewood Music Center. Made up of members who donate their services, and originally formed for performances at the BSO's summer home, the Tanglewood Festival Chorus is now the official chorus of the Boston Symphony Orchestra and Boston Pops, performing in Boston, New York, and at Tanglewood. The chorus has also performed with the Boston Symphony in Europe under Bernard Haitink and in the Far East under Seiji Ozawa. It can be heard on Boston Symphony recordings under Ozawa and Haitink, and on recordings with the Boston Pops Orchestra under Keith Lockhart and John Williams, as well as on the soundtracks to Clint Eastwood's

Mystic River, Steven Spielberg's Saving Private Ryan, and John Sayles's Silver City. In February 1998, singing from the General Assembly Hall of the United Nations, the chorus represented the United States in the Opening Ceremonies of the 1998 Winter Olympics when Seiji Ozawa led six choruses on five continents, all linked by satellite, in Beethoven's Ode to Joy. The Tanglewood Festival Chorus gives its own Friday-evening Prelude Concert each summer in Seiji Ozawa Hall and performed its debut program at Jordan Hall at the New England Conservatory of Music in May 2004.

In addition to his work with the Tanglewood Festival Chorus, John Oliver was for many years conductor of the MIT Chamber Chorus and MIT Concert Choir, and a senior lecturer in music at MIT. Mr. Oliver founded the John Oliver Chorale in 1977; has appeared as guest conductor with the New Japan Philharmonic and Berkshire Choral Institute; and has prepared the choruses for performances led by André Previn of Britten's Spring Symphony with the NHK Symphony in Japan and of Brahms's Ein deutsches Requiem at Carnegie Hall. Mr. Oliver made his Boston Symphony conducting debut in August 1985 and led the orchestra most recently in July 1998.

Guest Artists

Jose Feliciano

Recognized as the first Latin artist to cross over into the English music market, Jose Feliciano has also been acclaimed by critics worldwide as “the greatest living guitarist.” He has recorded nearly 70 albums, earning more than 45 gold and platinum records, 16 Grammy nominations, and six Grammy awards. In 1996 he received Billboard’s Lifetime Achievement Award and New York City re-named Public School 155 “The Jose Feliciano Performing Arts School.” He has performed with symphony orchestras and has appeared on major television shows and his own specials worldwide. His music has been featured on television, in films, and on the stage. Jose was born blind on September 10, 1945, in Lares, Puerto Rico, as one of 11 boys. His love affair with music began early. When he was five, his family immigrated to New York City and young Jose learned to play the concertina. He then taught himself guitar and was later inspired to sing. To help his family financially, Jose left school at 17 and began performing in coffee houses, where his salary would come from “passing the hat.” That same year he played his first professional engagement in Detroit. His first major break came in the Spanish market in 1966, when, after a performance at Argentina’s Mar del Plata Festival, the RCA executives in Buenos Aires encouraged him to record an album of Spanish music, which became a smash hit. Two more albums followed and the name Jose Feliciano was known throughout South and Central America. Then RCA in Los Angeles teamed him with producer Rick Jarrard to record the Doors’ song “Light My Fire.” Grammy nominations and awards followed, for his album Feliciano! Wanting to expand his career, Jose acted in episodes of several television series in the 1970s. More recently he made a cameo appearance in the 1995 movie Fargo, performing the original song “Let’s Find Each Other Tonight.” In addition to “Light My Fire,” the songs “Che Sera” (a hit in Europe, Asia, and South America) and “Feliz Navidad” (named one of the 25 greatest holiday songs of the century by ASCAP) have been milestones. Jose Feliciano has received stars on the Hollywood Walk of Fame and on the Walk of Fame in his native Puerto Rico. It should be noted that he was the first artist to stylize the National Anthem in a public performance (during the 1968 World Series), now a common practice. In 1989 he was invited by legendary author Ray Bradbury to write the music for the play The Wonderful Ice Cream Suit. Over the years, Jose Feliciano has been a part of many historic events, including the “Back to the Ranch Benefit,” in which he co-headlined with Paul Simon and James Taylor; the Motown 25 special; PBS’s The Kennedy Center Presents: The Americanos Concert; the “Lady Liberty” Concert in New York; the Christmas tree lighting ceremony in Washington, D.C.; and “Christmas at the Vatican,” among many others. In fall 1997 Polygram released the album Señor Bolero, which attained gold, platinum, or double platinum status in the United States, Puerto Rico, Mexico, Costa Rica, Argentina, and Venezuela. Entering the new millennium, Jose received the “Artist of the Millennium Award” from Los Premios Globos. In 2004 Universal Latino released his new CD, A Mexico...con Amor, and in Europe, RCA/BMG released a collection of Feliciano classics. In September 2005 Jose Feliciano gave a special performance in Houston for the displaced victims of Hurricane Katrina. This week he makes his Boston Pops debut.

New York Voices

New York Voices is the Grammy Award-winning vocal ensemble renowned for its excellence in jazz and the art of group singing. Like the great groups that have come before—such as Lambert, Hendricks and Ross, Singers Unlimited, Manhattan Transfer, and Take 6—they have learned from the best and taken the art form to new levels. Their interests are rooted in jazz, but often Brazilian, R&B, classical, and pop influences are included with equal creativity and authenticity. New York Voices was formed in 1987 by Darmon Meader, Peter Eldridge, Kim Nazarian, Caprice Fox—all Ithaca College alumni who were part of a group invited to tour European jazz festivals in the summer of 1986—and Sara Krieger. In 1989 they signed with GRP Records and released their debut album, New York Voices. The group quickly earned domestic and international recognition in the jazz world. From 1989 to 1994 they released three more compact discs on the GRP label: Hearts of Fire, What's Inside, and Collection. During this period the group underwent personnel changes. In 1992 Sara Krieger retired her chair and, after auditioning over 60 vocalists from across the country, they found Lauren Kinhan, whose first musical contributions can be heard on NYV's third release, What's Inside (May 1993). When Caprice Fox left the group in early 1994, New York Voices became the quartet it is today. In addition to recording their own CDs, NYV has made many guest appearances on recordings and in live performances in a variety of musical settings. They can be heard on the Grammy-winning collaboration Count Basie Orchestra with New York Voices, Live at Manchester Craftsmen's Guild (MCG Records), the contemporary classical The Ancient Tower (Robert Lepley—EarthBeat Records), Sketches of James (Koch Jazz), A Love Affair—The Music of Ivan Lins (Telarc), Heirs to Jobim (BMG Records), Don Sebesky's I Remember Bill (BMG), Jim Hall's By Arrangement (Telarc), Irving Berlin's Louisiana Purchase (DRG), and many more. They have performed with a number of influential jazz artists, among them Ray Brown, Bobby McFerrin, Nancy Wilson, and George Benson. In early 1997 NYV signed with RCA Victor and recorded New York Voices Sing the Songs of Paul Simon, paying tribute to a contemporary composer with new turns on his popular songbook. In late 2000 New York Voices signed a new contract with Concord Records and completed a sixth CD, Sing, Sing, Sing, their version of the great Big Band songbook. Along with their extensive concert and recording dates, the group presents workshops and clinics to high school and college music students. Individually, the four members are involved in a variety of projects, including solo performances and recordings, teaching, writing, and arranging. They have previously appeared with the Boston Pops at Symphony Hall and on tour.

Christmas is a time of transformation - when misers are moved to generosity, and the bitter cold of the season's first snows makes us feel warm. In 60 countries around the world, EDS helps companies transform themselves to meet the challenges of new markets and new technologies. Whether you want to reduce costs, improve service or increase collaboration, EDS can help. We're proud to be a sponsor of this year's "A Company Christmas at Pops."
